8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 JOSEPH ROGERS, DEBRA JONES
12 STEVENSON, and TAYLOR ARMIGER,
13 on behalf of themselves and all others
14 similarly situated,

15 Plaintiffs,

16 v.

17 ASSURANCE IQ, LLC and
18 BOOMSOURCING, LLC,

19 Defendants.

20 CASE NO. 2:21-cv-00823-TL

21 ORDER

22 This matter is before the Court on the Parties' Joint Status Report (Dkt. No. 94). The 23 Parties request that they file another status report on November 3, 2023, "in furtherance of" their 24 negotiations. Id. at 2.

25 In its Order on the Parties' previous joint status report (Dkt. No. 93), the Court stated that
26 it expected "more detailed information" to support another stay request, "including any tangible
27 prospects for settlement." Id. at 2. The Parties' report does not explicitly request a stay, though it

1 proposes the submission of another report. However, because that the Parties suggest a rather
2 short deadline for the next report—only five days after this Order—the Court will extend the stay
3 and grant the Parties' request.

4 Accordingly, the stay in this matter is EXTENDED until November 3, 2023. The Parties
5 are further DIRECTED to file a status report on or before November 3, 2023.

6 Dated this 30th day of October 2023.
